

Digital ETF week

Programme

Digital ETF week 26 – 30 October 2020 (held in German only)

26 October 2020
14:00 – 15:00

Outlook: how will Covid-19 change the global economy?

The spread of Covid-19 has slowed the global economy. Governments are implementing economic stimulus programmes in an effort to mitigate the repercussions of the crisis. Join the discussion with our renowned chief economists on whether the signs that a recovery is in store will hold true or whether we should prepare for further constraints.

- Stefan Hofrichter, Head of Global Economics & Strategy, Allianz Global Investors GmbH
- Dr. Ulrich Kater, Chief Economist DekaBank
- Stefan Schilbe, Chief Economist Germany, HSBC Trinkaus & Burkhardt AG

Moderation: Corinna Wohlfeil, n-tv

26 October 2020
18:00 – 19:00

Planning for retirement: make your savings last with ETFs

Exchange-traded funds are particularly suitable to create wealth in the long term and to ensure an income later in life. Following a step-by-step introduction to the advantages of ETFs, experts will explain how to develop a savings plan.

- Markus Jordan, Managing Director extraETF.com
- Davor Horvat, Honorarium-Consultant | InvestorCoach, Honorarfinanz AG
- Dr. Norbert Kuhn, Head of Corporate Finance, Deutsches Aktieninstitut
- Thomas Wiedenmann, Head of Retail & Wealth Management ETF, Indexing and Smart Beta Germany, Austria & Eastern Europe, Amundi

Moderation: Corinna Wohlfeil, n-tv

27 October 2020
14:00 – 15:00

Smart Beta ETFs: what investors need to know and how to apply them strategically

Smart Beta ETFs are used to achieve a higher return or reduce fluctuation intensity. Learn more about how the factors are related and have proven reliable in the past.

- Christoph Fick, Senior Portfolio Manager, Amundi Germany
- Ali Masarwah, Director, Editorial Research EMEA, Morningstar Europe
- Axel Riedel, Head of Intermediary Business Germany & Austria, State Street Global Advisors
- Dirk Trochermann, Portfolio Manager, Hamburger Pensionsverwaltung eG

Moderation: Corinna Wohlfeil, n-tv

27 October 2020
18:00 – 19:00

ETFs for private investors I – trends, opportunities and stumbling blocks

It's no wonder index funds have become particularly popular among private investors: they allow for transparent, flexible and cost-effective participation in the capital market.

In their presentation, Edda Vogt and Max Ebner take on the perspective of private investors in 2020 to explain both the advantages and disadvantages of passive investments. They explain which recent developments and strategies are relevant and in which situations it is better to be actively or passively invested.

- Edda Vogt, Information Services Börse Frankfurt, Deutsche Börse AG
- Marvin Weimer, Visitors Center, Deutsche Börse AG

28 October 2020
10:00 – 11:00

Recent developments in the commodity market and how to participate with ETCs

How do commodity prices behave in economically uncertain times? The oil price in particular has seen a sharp decline as well as increased fluctuation intensity. Gold, on the other hand, is on an upward trend, with prices temporarily surpassing the US$2,000 mark. Learn more about commodity market development from our experts and how to participate through ETCs.

- Kemal Bagci, Director - Equity Derivatives & Structured Retail, BNP Paribas SA
- Thiemo Storz, Head of German speaking Region, WisdomTree
- Eugen Weinberg, Head of Commodity Research, Commerzbank AG

Moderation: Corinna Wohlfeil, n-tv

28 October 2020
14:00 – 15:00

Investing sustainably with ETFs – more than a trend?

As sustainable investment remains a major financial trend, an increasing number of investors are focusing on environmental and social factors. Specialists will take a closer look at what exactly the abbreviations ESG and SRI mean and their significance for investment decisions.

- Dag Rodewald, Head of Passive & ETF Specialist Sales, UBS Asset Management
- Dr. Mirjam Staub-Bisang, Country Head of BlackRock Switzerland
- Lorenz Stör, Head of Climate Analytics, ISS ESG

Moderation: Corinna Wohlfeil, n-tv

28 October 2020
18:00 – 19:00

ETFs for private investors II – how to find the perfect match and order skilfully

In their second ETF presentation for private investors, Jan Altmann from JustETF together with Edda Vogt and Max Ebner from Deutsche Börse will give you advice on researching and choosing your investment. Specifically, how you can find the right ETF for your personal strategy and trade smartly.

- Jan Altmann, JustETF GmbH
- Edda Vogt, Information Services Börse Frankfurt, Deutsche Börse AG

29 October 2020
10:00 – 11:00

ETFs and fair pricing: understanding the correlations between NAV, iNAV, spread and market price

Capital market experts explain the price determination process for ETFs and discuss the factors influencing the provision of liquidity. They also discuss the reasons why, in certain markets, ETF liquidity is sometimes higher than that of the underlying instrument.

- Daniel Skora, Index Investing Asia Pacific, DWS Investments Hong Kong Limited
- Holger Schlünzen, Institutional Trader, Optiver

Moderation: Frank Mohr, Head ETF Sales Trading, Société Générale

29 October 2020Climate change has an impact on the economy. How is the global automotive industry reacting to these developments and how can ETF investors map out their own course?*14:00 – 15:00

The challenges posed by climate change require both political measures and technological innovations. To reduce CO2 emissions, new products, infrastructure measures and adjustments are necessary, as is a new way of thinking on the part of every individual. We will look into the transition from different angles and discuss how investors can actively shape this process.

- Heike Fürpaß-Peter, Head of Lyxor Deutschland, Lyxor International Asset Management S.A.S.
- Frank Gaube, Head of Investor Relations and Financial Press, Porsche Automobil Holding SE
- Claus Hecher, Head of Business Development ETF & Index Solutions, BNP Paribas Asset Management

Moderation: Patrick Kalbhenn, Head of Trading & Clearing Communications, Deutsche Börse AG

30 October 2020Cannabis, gaming & cyber security – intriguing investment ideas with thematic ETFs*10:00 – 11:00

Thematic ETFs allow investors of today to benefit from tomorrow's trends. From medical cannabis and cyber security to video gaming & eSports, education & digital learning as well as sustainable nutrition - we introduce you to ETF issuers that specialize in such niche markets.

- Patrick Engström, Associate Director – European Business Development, Rize ETF
- Dominik Poiger, ETF Product Manager, VanEck
- Andre Voinea, Head of German speaking regions, HANetf

Moderation: Jan Altmann, JustETF GmbH

Deutsche Börse AG
60485 Frankfurt am Main
xetra.com/digital-etf-week

twitter: #ETFweek